

Prayer of a Victorious Christian

Father in Heaven, here I am at the beginning of a new day, needing You, desperately needing You as always. I need You to be fill me with Your Spirit and to give me wisdom and understanding to deal with what will come to me today. I need the fruit of the Spirit - love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control in my life. I need the faith of Jesus so my life will bear witness of You. I need forgiveness for my sins, my failings, fallings, and weaknesses. I am totally dependent on You to give me victory when Satan tempts me. I need you to empower me to live a life that will glorify your name, Father. I need so much and You are the only one who can supply these needs; without You I have nothing, because everything comes from You. In fact, I exist only because of You. So, I desperately need You.

Thank You so much for life and every blessing You've given me and continue to give me. Thank You for taking care of all my needs, even though I deserve nothing but death. You have been so good to me! Thank You so much for that. Thank You for the talents and abilities You have given me; empower me to use them for Your honor and glory. Keep me close to You and do whatever is needed to bring me into alignment when I stray. Work Your character in my life.

Thank You so much for allowing Jesus to come to this wicked, sinful world to suffer, being tempted, tried and tested like no other man - yet without sin, Then He took my sin, my guilt, my shame, my judgment, my condemnation, and was falsely accused, abused, tempted, tried, tested, tortured, spit on, and scourged. Even His disciples forsook Him. Then You turned Your back on Him when He was hung on the cross to suffer and to die the second death for me, removing it from my future, if I accept it. And Father, I accept it. I do not want what Jesus has done for me to go to waste in my life.

Even more than what Jesus did for me on the cross, He now offers to give me His perfect sinless life, to live it in and through me, giving me wisdom and understanding, filling me with the same Holy Spirit He was filled with, giving me His mind, the mind of Christ, and His faith, the faith of Jesus, working in me the fruits of the Spirit, even giving me the Way of Escape when I am tempted to sin, empowering me to have victory! Thank You Father, that Jesus has given me everything I need for my salvation and sanctification! I want everything that Jesus has made available to me! I don't want any of it to go to waste in my life. So, Father, take me today, I am Your child. I surrender my will to You. I give You permission to do whatever it takes to save me. Change me as You will, control my thoughts, feelings and emotions so my life will glorify Your name in all that I do.

Thank You so much for renewing Your covenant with me and clothing me with Christ's precious robe of righteousness, not because of anything I've done or ever can do, but because of what Jesus has done for me, and is doing, in and through me.

I love You and pray this in the precious name of Jesus, Amen.
